Local fishermen discuss half-mile inside shrimping limit in county

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Shrimpers from Bayou Cadet say there will have to be a lot of shrimp caught inside the half-mile limit east of Gulfport before they will go that far to shrimp in the previously closed area which will

Stolen guns, ammunition recovered

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Two juveniles have been arrested in connection with the burglary of Seals Gun Sales and Repair in Rocky Hill Community last Sunday.

Hancock County Sheriff's Investigator Delbert Seay said, "Guns and merchandise with a $6,000 value were taken between 1 and 2 a.m. from Seals Gun Sales and Repair. Two juveniles were arrested on Thursday night and all the guns, some ammo and merchandise was recovered."

"The juveniles were turned over to Hancock County Youth Court authorities and they are charged with the burglary of a business," Seay added.

Officers involved in the case included Seay, Sheriff Ronnie Peterson, Investigator Alvin Ladner, and Hancock Deputy Nathan Hoda.

open Monday.

The Mississippi Commission on Wildlife announced last week that certain areas of the Sound will be open to shrimping activities beginning at sunrise on Oct. 29.

A large catch is doubtful as an in-shore sampling program revealed that there are relatively few shrimp within the half-mile area from the shore.

The sampling, conducted by the Bureau of Marine Resources also revealed that the shrimp found in the previously closed area, either meet or exceed 58 count per pound, the minimum legal standard.

Local shrimpers polled also said they would favor a similar program for the local shrimping areas.

"It's only fair that if the half mile area is open over there, that it should be open here," shrimper T. J. Fayard said.

"They ought to open the whole thing unless there is a good reason that I don't know of," Kenny May, owner of May's Seafood, said.

"I can't see any reason why it wouldn't be open to the beach here," May said, "they need to be caught before they leave unless it would seriously hurt the new crop of very small shrimp."

Fayard said that at a point near the end of the season, when you should be able to get the shrimp from wherever you can catch them.

The shrimpers agreed that if a similar season was opened in local waters there should be a restriction on how close boats could be to shore when they dumped their trash from the catch.

According to the commission, the area to be opened includes selected

Two picketers arrested Friday in clinic lot

By DENA BISNETTE

A Bay St. Louis minister and a Waveland psychiatrist are scheduled to appear in Bay city court Nov. 7 for a hearing on charges of trespassing on the property of New Woman Medical Center on Highway 90.

Acting Bay St. Louis Police Chief Murray Ladner reported Friday that Dr. Henry Maggio, a psychiatrist with Gulf Coast Mental Health Center in Gulfport, and Rev. Nathan Barber, pastor of First Baptist Church of Bay St. Louis, were arrested Friday afternoon.

Both were released on their own recognizance, Ladner said.

New jail need receives more support

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The need for a new Hancock County jail received support from the Hancock County Concerned Citizens, Inc., Bay St. Louis Junior Auxiliary, and Bay-Waveland Humane Society, Inc. this past week.

These organizations join a host of others supporting a bond issue for a new county jail to appear on the ballot of the Nov. 6 general election.

Among the many organizations supporting the need for a new jail include the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, Bay St. Louis Rotary Club, Waveland Civic Association, Diamondhead Property Owners Association, Altrusa Club, Bay St. Louis American Legion, Hancock County Board of Supervisors, City of Bay St. Louis mayor and councilmen, and Waveland mayor and aldermen.

The present county jail was constructed during the mid-30's and is reported to be the most obsolete in the state of Mississippi.

Waveland police still searching for robber

By DENA BISNETTE

Authorities are still looking for the armed man who held up the Waveland Branch of People's Federal Savings and Loan shortly before noon Thursday.

According to Peoples Federal President David Treutel, the bank was open for business at the time the gunman entered but there were no customers in the building. The man threatened a clerk, Treutel said, but no one was injured during the robbery.

He said the robber left with an undetermined amount of money. Waveland Police Chief Donald Dorn said the gunman was seen get-

Three flee burning boat at Marina

By ELLIS CUEVAS

A 28-foot inboard fishing craft was destroyed by fire after refueling at the Bay Marina on Washington Road, Saturday afternoon.

James Gaudet of Bay St. Louis was a passenger on the craft with owners Mr. and Mrs. Amos Black of Pass Christian.

Gaudet said, "We had been fishing all day and returned to the dock and had just refueled and were moving the vessel to its dock."

"The engine was running and the motor cover blew off the deck. I hit the water and saw Mrs. Black in the water and Mr. Black at the wheel trying to figure out how to get out," Gaudet added.

He said he then got Mrs. Black out of the water.

James Varnell, a Waveland Patrolman said Mrs. Black appeared to have suffered burns to an ankle.

Bill Fields of the East Hancock Volunteer Fire Department said the boat had two filled 40 gallon tanks of gas when the fire started.

Two fire units from East Hancock, one each from Bay St. Louis and Waveland responded to the fire.

The craft drifted down the canal from the fuel dock and burned to the waterline.

Several camps were on the opposite side of the canal.

The alarm was turned into the fire department at approximately 2:25 p.m.

Hancock sheriff's deputy Harold Heine was also at the scene.

Charges of trespassing on private property were filed against both men by Jay Triche, who owns the building shared by the clinic and another tenant.

Ladner said both men were picketing in the clinic parking lot when police arrived. "They stated that they had nowhere to march because of the yucca bushes in the median," he commented.

Maggio and Barber were reportedly picketing in protest of the abortions provided by the clinic. Protesters have been told in a judge's opinion that they may picket if they do not march on private property, which limits them to a strip of land between the parking lot and Hwy. 90.

That opinion was handed down after the clinic operators, Beacon Light Clinic, Inc., of Alabama, asked for an injunction to stop the picketing. The injunction was denied.

Maggio and Barber are the second and third protesters arrested in front of the clinic this month.

The first, Dr. Sheila Gottschalk, was also charged with trespassing but the case against her was dismissed by Judge Joseph Benvenuti.

Q: My husband and I were divorced three years ago and I was given custody of our six-year-old son. Since then my husband has remarried and has been promoted twice in his job. His income has increased substantially and he now wants custody of our child. Will the court change custody because my ex-husband can better provide for the child?

A: No. The court will only change custody when there has been a material change in circumstances which adversely affect the child. Here the circumstances of the father have changed but the change does not adversely affect the child. Custody will remain with the mother.

Q: After two months of marriage, my wife left me and returned to her native country in South America. I do not know her address, and I have not heard from her since she left. It is now three years later, and I wish to remarry. Is it possible for me to get a divorce?

A: You will need to file a complaint for divorce against your wife and publish a summons in the newspaper. After the notice has run three times, and you have allowed sufficient time for her to answer your complaint, the facts that you have stated indicate that you should be able to obtain a divorce by default on the grounds of desertion.

Du Pont's DeLisle plant celebrates 5-year birthday

The Du Pont Company's titanium dioxide plant in DeLisle recently celebrated its fifth birthday. More than 2,500 Gulf Coast residents attended the open house.

Included among the guests were more than 780 employees and contractors working at the site, their families and community leaders. The celebration began with employees cutting a birthday cake and burying a time capsule near the plant.

"This celebration was an opportunity for all employees and contractors to show their families and friends exactly where they work and what they do," said David L. Settle, plant manager.

"When we opened in 1979, we said we would be a good corporate neighbor, providing jobs to produce a quality product in an environmentally safe manner," he added, "We have kept our promise."

For the occasion, employees from all plant areas developed displays featuring the quality aspects of their jobs. Job functions were explained by posters, equipment demonstrations, video tape and unique exhibits.

The five year birthday celebration also included an employee hobby show, a motorized tram, a Remington Arms exhibit and a Du Pont product display.

Special guest of the day was Congressman Trent Lott of the 5th district.

In keeping with Du Pont's "safety first" tradition, the plant was shut down and secured during the celebration. This allowed guests to tour most of the process areas of the plant.

The DeLisle plant has more than 580 employees and approximately 200 resident contractors. The annual payroll for the plant is approximately $18 million.

In addition, local goods and services purchased contribute another $16 million to the local economy. In 1983, the DeLisle plant paid $1.3 million in taxes.

Du Pont DeLisle produces titanium dioxide used to impart whiteness, brightness and opacity to paint, plastics, textile fibers and many other products, including toothpaste and even some cake icing. DeLisle is the world's largest single line producer of titanium dioxide.

"The DeLisle plant is proud to be five years old and part of the continuing growth and progress achieved by the Mississippi Gulf Coast," said Settle.

LET'S TALK FACTS

A new Hancock County jail is inevitable whether we vote yes or whether the Federal Government orders us to do so. Failure to meet minimum Federal requirements for jails has resulted in costly fines throughout the country. Because neighboring Mobile County failed to meet Federal requirements, U.S. District Judge Virgil Pittman has imposed a $5000-per-day fine until these requirements are met. Their fine alone is now nearly $3 million. Let's avoid a fine and build a new jail.

The need is urgent.

VA Questions and Answers

(Editor's Note: Following are representative questions answered daily by VA counselors. Full information is available at any VA office.)

Q: Is there a deadline for filing a claim with the VA for an illness or injury which occurred in military service?

A: I bought a home recently with a VA home loan guaranty. I have now discovered some defects which the seller refused to repair. Can the VA help me?

A: The VA cannot compel a seller to remedy defects or to fulfill a contract on a pre-existing home. However, there is a one-year warranty on a newly-constructed home.

Q: Does the VA maintain a listing of repossessed homes for sale?

A: Yes. Interested persons should contact the nearest VA regional office to obtain a listing of repossessed homes for sale. Also, you may contact a qualified real estate broker of your choice for information about VA repossessed homes.

Q: Who is eligible for the work-study program?

A: This program is designed for those veteran students enrolled in a full-time program of education under the GI Bill. The standard agreement is 250 hours per contract to be worked during or between enrollment periods during a semester or other applicable enrollment period.

Q: What is the burial allowance for non service-connected deaths?

A: Payment not to exceed $300 toward burial expenses is authorized if the veteran was entitled at the time of death to pension or compensation (or but for the receipt of military retired pay would have been entitled to compensation.) Eligibility is also established if the veteran died while hospitalized or domiciled in a VA facility or other facility at VA expense.

In addition, payment not to exceed $150 for a plot or interment allowance is authorized when the veteran is not buried in a national cemetery.

Q: What happens if my certificate of eligibility expires for the jobs training program?

A: The certificate of eligibility is valid for 60 days. It may be renewed by submitting a new application to any VA regional office.

New jail is needed in Hancock County

A new jail is critically needed in Hancock County, and we hope all qualified electors will vote yes on Tuesday, Nov. 6 for a new jail.

The Hancock County Jail constructed in the mid-30's is out-dated and over-crowded.

There have been lawsuits filed against the county by prisoners regarding the current facility, some have been settled while others are still in court.

We can all remember the incident involving a person who dove from one of the piers in Bay St. Louis several years ago and sued the city.

The suit was paid for by the residents in the form of a sales tax, so we can all be made responsible when it comes to lawsuits.

Of course, we could do without a jail, just let the murderers, rapers, robbers, muggers, kidnappers, etc. roam the streets.

Living in an area like that would be like the old days when everyone had to carry a gun to protect themselves.

You think we have too many shootings now, just think how many we would have if everyone carried a gun.

We urge everyone to get out and vote on election day, vote For the new Hancock County Jail.

Memo from George Dale, Mississippi Insurance Commissioner.

A Snapshot of the Mississippi Insurance Business.

The insurance business touches each of us daily in many different ways. Every financial, security transaction, and asset is protected in some way by the insurance business.

The latest statistics show that the annual insurance value of life insurance protection on the lives of Mississippians totals more than $36,128,000,000. In recent years statistics show fire insurance premiums totaled $862,000,000 written on property in the state and automobile insurance $268,990,000. The companies doing business in this state pay a substantial tax bill to the general revenue; and therefore, participate in Mississippi's growth and welfare. Last year these taxes totaled more than $45,000,000.

More than 783 insurance agencies and 44,000 insurance agents paid a total of $433,912 for their licenses to do business in the state of Mississippi last year. This licensing process, regulated by the Insurance Department, insures that each agent is trained and knowledgeable to serve your insurance needs.

Licenses obtained by agents from the Insurance Department are for the sale of casualty insurance, life, health, trip accident, small loan, surety, burial, automobile club, bail bondsman, and mortgage guaranty.

Insurance in Mississippi is big business. It's everyone's business, and we're happy to say that the laws of the state of Mississippi are sufficiently adequate to allow the Insurance Department to regulate this most important piece of the state's commerce.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

If it concerns you, it concerns us

Without a new jail, other higher costs are inevitable

Dear Editor,
I am writing in reply to Mr. Carl Wamsley's letter.

He states that Hancock County doesn't need a new jail to pamper criminals.

If the residents of Hancock County don't want to spend money to pay for a new jail, then maybe they should stop and think about what they might have to spend it on.

Here are a few that come to mind:
1. Law suits, because the present jail doesn't meet minimum standards.

2. Added security for their homes and businesses, because these lawbreakers will be on the street without a jail to hold them.

What about the safety of your family and loved ones?

This nice jail for people that are killing and shooting and robbing will make it that much safer for all of us.

I for one would feel much better knowing we had a good jail in Hancock County and these people were locked up, not out on the street.

The choice is with the people of Hancock County.

I for one will feel much safer knowing that we will have such a jail.

Utility customer feels hasty disconnection is unjust treatment

Dear Mr. Editor,

I would like to let the citizens of Bay St. Louis be informed of what I consider to be unjust treatment I received from city officials, namely the utility commissioner and mayor.

On Oct. 17, the same day that the Daily Herald printed about the foreclosure and the amount owed the city for utilities by the mayor, I was told that my water would be disconnected due to a total bill of $29.67.

I have been paying on my bill every month and I don't feel that one month in the rear is nearly as bad as the amount the number one city official owes.

I felt it to be unfair and I called the commissioner, Mr. Franklin, and he told me that I would have to talk to the mayor.

I have made a number of calls to try and communicate with Mayor Bennett but to no avail.

I do feel the treatment I received from the Utility Department and not being able to have a conversation with the mayor leave room to believe, and I feel very strongly, that I was wrongfully treated.

County's population growth will aggravate conditions in outmoded jail

Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir,

I would like to write a letter indicating the reasons that I feel that we should build a new jail to accommodate the people suspected of committing crimes in our County of Hancock.

Our present jail is quite apparently overcrowded and as all people who have studied the problems of crime know, this leads to great problems in both physical and mental health of the persons who are incarcerated.

Many of these people are later found innocent of the offenses with which they have been charged, and even if they are guilty, they have certain rights too.

They are people and as human animals, they have rights just as our pets do.

As you well know, Hancock County has been growing at a very tremendous rate and the present jail was built many years ago when we did not know that growth would be so great.

If we do not go ahead and build another jail that is more adequate, we may find ourselves in the position of New Orleans, having to put up tents to accommodate the people awaiting trial, or still worse, releasing a number before trial since there is no space for them.

Please think about this when we vote on the Bond Issue.

Very sincerely,
Rosemary (Mrs. Emile)

Legislators voice support for proposed state constitutional amendment

October 25, 1984
Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Editor:

Please allow us to use your newspaper to inform the people of Mississippi of the necessity of the adoption of the constitutional amendment that will appear on the November ballot.

Unless this amendment is adopted, an individual generally will be prohibited from serving in any official capacity, this is, member of the Board of Supervisors, member of the municipal government, school board, Legislature, and so forth, if he or she, or his or her spouse, is a school teacher or employee of the local school; a professor or employee of any hospital which receives Medicaid reimbursement funds; an employee of any state agency or department; an owner or employee of a business receiving any payments from the state or local government of which the individual or spouse serves; any member of a legal, medical, engineering, architectural, or any other professional firm contracting with the state or local government of which the individual or spouse serves; and an owner or employee of any health care facility or business of any type which receives any Medicaid reimbursement funds.

You can see from the above that unless this amendment is adopted by the people, many capable and public-spirited individuals will be barred from serving our people in an official capacity unless he or she is economically elite or is a full-time employee of the state or local government without any other income that would be prohibited as detailed above.

This amendment is offered to the people with the firm conviction that its adoption will protect the public from corruption, but not prevent honorable individuals from serving in government.

We urge you to vote for this constitutional amendment.

Very truly yours,

Bay St. Louis

Sir,

In response to a letter regarding the critical need for new jail facilities in Hancock County, we take pleasure in endorsing this project.

It is our feeling that no matter how fine a man we may elect as sheriff, it is a critical responsibility of the citizens of this area to provide him with the tools necessary to do an excellent job.

Sincerely,
Cel Dumestre

There's a difference between a lady and a woman

To the Editor:

In rebuttal against James Travirca's response to my letter on Oct. 18, 1984 in The Sea Coast Echo:

Mr. Travirca, I am astounded that you and Russell Necaise both observed Deer Street and did not find all the potholes that I wrote about.

If my letter was so incorrect, tell me why by the evening, Thursday, Oct. 18, all the potholes were filled, street graded and also the turnaround at the dead end in progress?

Why Mr. Travirca?
I am not a liar and I resent being called a woman. I happen to be a lady and not a woman. There is a difference, in case you don't know.

I would also like to say you must have a very short memory because in April when you were on our street you did see the large hole where they dug up the public water line and that was when you said you would send some fill out and also told Moran, your ex-foreman, to make a note of it.

But by the later part of July, my husband got tired waiting and bought fill.

I'm not the only one who complained about the street, but I am the only one who decided to write to the editor. I do have freedom of speech, press and religion.

Quotables by CUEVAS

If you heard the time and it sounded a little early for you this morning, you may have forgotten to set your clock back last night.

As you know, we had another seasonal time change.

The only complaint we have is that it gets dark too early in the evenings.

Wednesday is Halloween and many of our youngsters will be out trick-or-treating as usual.

We urge everyone to please be extremely careful if they are out driving because our youth will be thinking about things other than traffic.

Tonight Triton's Chamber of Horrors will be open starting at 7 p.m. at the krewe's den on Coleman Avenue, then again on Halloween night beginning at 6 p.m.

As you know Triton's Krewe parades in Waveland and Bay St. Louis on Mardi Gras Day.

There are numerous ghosts in the Chamber of Horrors and we understand some new spirits have taken residence since last year.

Admission is $1 and proceeds will be used by the krewe for its annual parade.

On Halloween night, the Bay High Tiger Band Aides will again have a haunted house at the old Fire Station on Ulman Avenue behind the junior high.

The Band Aides are working very hard to have a really spooky place by Wednesday as festivities begin at 5 p.m. Admission is $1.

Refreshments will be available at both spooky places.

We wish everyone a safe and happy Halloween.

This is the time of the year when pecans begin to fall and many residents have trouble with unauthorized persons harvesting their nuts.

One of our subscribers supplied us with a copy of a state law pertaining the gathering of another's crops.

The law states ... "Any person who shall enter the enclosed or unenclosed lands of another or of the public and who shall willfully and wantonly gather ... carry away ... shrubs, flowers, moss, grain, turf, grass, hay, fruits, nuts or vegetables thereon, ... shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500), or be imprisoned not exceeding six (6) months in the county jail, or both ..."

We think it is best to get a property owners' permission before entering their lands.

Persons interested in acquiring posters supporting the new jail can do so at either the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce or at the sheriff's office.

LIFE AT SEA

The life of a sailor is examined close-up in the one-hour documentary "Second Home" at 9 p.m., Wednesday, Nov. 7 on Mississippi ETV.

The action takes place on board the United States aircraft carrier John F. Kennedy and one of its escort ships, the guided missile frigate Harry E. Yarnell.

The film focuses on three Navy men and their families. Shot in the fall of 1983, just as the Kennedy and its battle group left for duty off the coast of Lebanon, the film focuses on the men's last days on shore and their first days at sea. Once aboard the ship, the attention of the men is quickly and sharply focused on the demanding jobs that await them. They became part of another family: one in which their performance can affect the well-being of the others.

On Taxes...

Overvaluing of artwork being donated to charity has brought a change in this year's tax laws. IRS audits revealed 226 artworks overvalued at an average of 671 percent. For next year, donations of artwork exceeding $5,000 must be reported along with an IRS approved appraisal. Penalties for inflated values will include payment of tax and a 30 percent fine if the work is overvalued by 150 percent or more.

On gift-giving...

AT&T has a novel, as well as practical, gift idea—a gift certificate that can be used to pay for long distance calls. The certificates, which come in two denominations, $5 and $25, can be purchased by calling the toll-free number 1-800-222-0300. Payment for the certificates can be made by personal check, a major credit card, money order, or you may have it added to your telephone bill. There are no expiration dates on the certificates, and they may be used by simply enclosing the certificate as payment (or partial payment) of your telephone bill.

On pensions...

The largest asset a couple owns may be the husband's pension. But, what happens to it if the couple should divorce? Whether the woman gets part of the pension may depend upon state law, the type of pension, and the husband's willingness to share.

More information is available in a 21-page booklet, "Your Pension Rights at Divorce." For a copy, send $2 to: Women's Pension Project, 932 Dupont Circle Building, Washington, D.C. 20036. Allow six weeks for delivery or enclose a 20-cent stamp for first class mail.

Hancock Hawks down Mercy Cross

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Although the lead in the Hawk game Friday night switched several times, Hancock North Central came out on top at the end to take a 21-17 win over the Mercy Cross Crusaders.

Coach Irvin Favre said he was proud of the team for being able to come from behind not only once, but twice against the Crusaders.

"They deserve the credit for the win over Mercy Cross, who always plays a tough game against us," he said.

Favre said the team played a little sloppy in the first half but came out after the half and started doing things right.

He cited the defensive team for their efforts and also said the secondary played real well.

The Hawk defense showed fans what they could do as they held the Crusaders to only four first downs for the entire game.

In the first quarter, Mercy Cross managed to gain only 15 yards total offense, four yards rushing and 11 yards passing.

The fourth quarter was also all Hawk defense as they forced the Crusaders to take the ball to the air and pushed them back for a total yards rushing of negative two.

For the entire game the Crusaders had a total offense of 182 yards, with 95 yards rushing and 87 passing.

"The defense just played extremely well, especially in the second half when the Crusaders only score was on the offense following an interception," he said.

The Hawks rolled up a total offense of 277 yards gaining 13 first downs. They had 228 yards rushing and 49 yards passing.

Charles Burton was the leading rusher, gaining 91 yards on 22 carries. He was followed by Lewis Burton with 56 yards on 10 carries and Frank Ladner with 60 yards on 13 carries.

During the game there were a total of seven fumbles. The Hawks lost possession of the ball on each of their three fumbles.

Mercy Cross fumbled four times but were able to recover three of these loose footballs.

Hancock North Central punter Tompey Lawler averaged 32 yards on four punts, with the longest punt being 40 yards.

Crusader punter averaged 39 yards on eight punts.

Favre said this was probably the most punts any team has ever kicked against him and also the best average.

The Crusaders also scored twice on field goals.

The Hawks won the toss but declined the option and the Crusaders decided to receive the ball.

They ran three plays and punted giving Hancock North Central possession of the ball on their own 33-yard line.

Ladner started the drive that led the Hawks to the goal line and a first quarter touchdown. On the first carry, Ladner broke through to gain a first down moving the ball to the edge of Crusader territory.

Burton steamed through on the next play making another first down, carrying the ball to the Mercy Cross 35. Stanley Jourdan added seven yards before a five-yard penalty gave the Hawks a second and eight situation.

Ladner-carried again coming just one short of the first down made on the next play by quarterback Melton Lewis. Burton added four yards before going through to the eight-yard line giving the Hawks first and goal.

Burton went to the three-yard line and the Hawks scored on the next play taking a 6-0 lead. The extra point was no good.

On the Hawks next possession they were stopped just inches short of a first down before punting.

Mercy Cross put three points on the board with a field goal after being stopped 16 yards from the goal line on the third down.

Ladner gained one yard on the Hawks' next possession, before Melton Lewis, being threatened by several Crusader defenders, pitched a desperate pass to Burton.

Burton caught the pass but was pushed out of bounds and a loss of six yards was recorded on the play. Ladner was halted at the line of scrimmage on the third down and the punting team was called in again.

The Crusaders took the ball and pulled out ahead of the Hawks following a 61-yard touchdown run through the middle of the line of defenders.

They held on to the lead, taking a 10-6 advantage over the Hawks to the locker room at the half.

Mercy Cross kept a hold on that lead until the Hawks got their second possession of the ball in the third quarter. They drove nearly the entire length of the field in six plays to score and take the lead again.

Melton Lewis connected with Walter Acker on a 55-yard pass play putting the Hawks in Mercy Cross territory. Burton gained 21 yards on two carries before the Crusaders were penalized.

This 10-yard penalty put the Hawks inside their 10-yard line and Ladner carried the ball twice before scoring from three yards out.

Another Hawk possession netted a first down before a Crusader intercepted a pass and returned it 75 yards for a touchdown.

This score came just minutes into the fourth quarter and Mercy Cross took the lead again 14-17.

At this time the Hawks took possession and with the aid of two 15-yard penalties against Mercy Cross for unsportsmanlike conduct went down the field to score.

Ladner again carried the ball in the final few yards. This touchdown put the Hawks back out ahead and the final score of the game was 21-17.

"It pays when you don't lose your cool in the game," Favre said. "They gave us every opportunity to win in the final minutes of the game because of their lack of poise."

In addition to the two unsportsmanlike calls on the last Hawk scoring drive, the Crusaders received a third penalty on the same call.

Next week the Hawks will take to the road to face county rival, Bay St. Louis Tigers.

"This will be a rough ball game," Favre said, "but we are looking forward to Friday."

Rocks return to winning

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws defeated East Central's Hornets 21-7 Friday.

Head coach Vernon Powell said, "This is the first time we played as a team in four weeks. Our offensive line did an excellent job and showed what we can do in moving the ball after being shutdown for three weeks in a row."

Rock quarterback Matt Scardino gave Stanislaus running game an extra feature by scoring two of three touchdowns.

Scardino opened the scoring on a four yard run in the first quarter. The PAT by Matt Spotorno was good giving the Rocks a 7-0 lead.

The first TD came after a 80 yard drive.

East Central tied the score early in the second quarter at 7-7.

Rock-A-Chaw Joe Golman intercepted a Hornet pass and returned it 45 yards to East Central's 20.

Scardino added six points a little later on a nine yard run with Spotorno adding the PAT.

This gave the Rocks a 14-7 lead which held up for the first half.

Mark Logan went into the end zone untouched on a 18 yard run in the third quarter behind some fancy blocking following a 60 yard drive. Spotorno was perfect on his third PAT of the game.

This was the final scoring, placing the Rocks with a 21-7 edge over East Central.

Powell had special praises for Jordan Bradford who did an excellent job offensively and defensively.

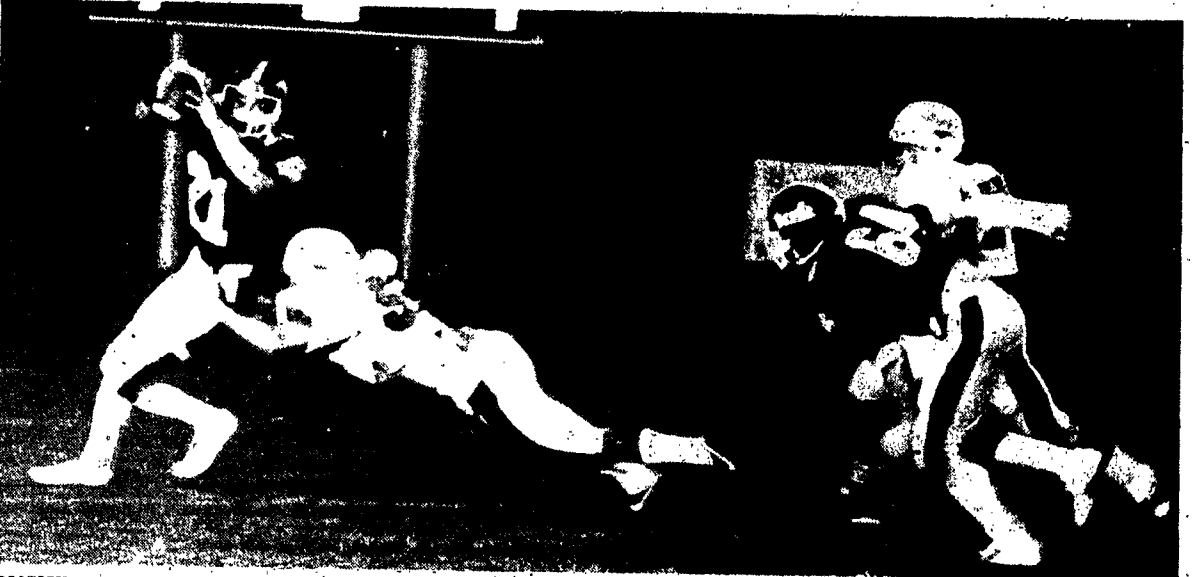

Troy Flynn and Golman was also mentioned for a fine defensive performance for the Rocks.

East Central threw 33 passes completing 17 for 136 yards and had four interceptions. Stanislaus threw nine times for five completions.

First down edge was in favor of the Hornet's 13-6.

Stanislaus ground game accounted for 288 yards with East Central netting only 24.

Stanislaus' record is now 4-3 for the season and next week will journey into the Pirate's den in Pass Christian. The Pirates are 6-2 for the season.

RUSHING PASSER—The passing attack of East Central was stymied by Rock-A-Chaw defensive plays like the one being made by Jimmy Thriffley closing in on the passer. Assistance was also coming from John

Ladner as he evades blocker. Stanislaus dominated East Central to gain victory number four of the season. Next week they will tangle with an improved Pass Christian Pirate squad. (Photo by John Falcon) tributed to the Pass ground attack, and quarterbacks Joey Rogers and John W. Dedaux along with ends Mark Boyd, Irvin Hall and Willie Newson added another 60 yards through the air.

SEA COAST ECHO

SPORTS

In what Pirate coach Alton Wright described as a "flat first half," Pass posted the only score with two minutes left in the second period.

At the beginning of the second period, the Pirates opened at 14-play drive from their own 30 to inches short of the Bulldog goal line.

But the Vancleave defense refused to allow a score and took over after the Pirates failed on a fourth and two situation.

The Pirate defense also dug in at this point and forced the Bulldogs to punt from their own five.

Hall returned the punt 10 yards from the Vancleave 35, and Rogers picked up an additional four yards on first down.

Ausmer ran for 12 before Howell took the ball into the Vancleave end zone on a 17-yard scamper.

Pirate place kick specialist Otis Gates added one for the hosts' 7-0 lead at half.

With that "flat first half" behind them, the Pirates scored early in the third period after runs by Howell and Ausmer totalling 25 yards contributed to moving the football from their own 35 to the Vancleave 28.

Three minutes into the period, Ausmer closed that gap with a scoring run which pushed the Pirates ahead by 13, capped by another Gates extra point.

The Pirates threatened again immediately by recovering a kickoff return fumble at the Vancleave 30. Bulldog defenses held to frustrate a 32-yard field goal attempt by Gates with six minutes left in the quarter.

Ausmer scored again with less than two minutes left in the period on a 20-yard run, but an illegal block nullified the tally.

In the closing seconds of the third period, Dedaux hit Newson with a 40-yard pass at the left coffin corner for the Pirates third touchdown.

Gates kick was blocked, giving Pass a 20-0 lead at the opening of the final period.

Halfway into the fourth quarter Payne joined Pass Christian's elite touchdown club with a three-yard run which followed bursts by Howell, Ausmer and Payne.

Gates kick was wide and he was hit late by a Bulldog defender. Both the Bulldog and Gates were down on the field, and Gates had to be carried off with a knee injury.

The Pirates got another chance at the extra point following a roughing-the-kicker call, and this time Boyd made good on the effort, closing out the scoring for the evening at 27-0.

The victory for the Pirates was the first before a home crowd this year, and gives them a 6-2 overall record and 4-1 conference total.

Pass meets St. Stanislaus Friday in the Pirate homecoming event slated to get underway with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

Wright said he is highly pleased with the Pirate running game against Vancleave.

"They did a super job, ran the ball real well which is something you didn't see last week against Pearl River Central," the coach added.

"And this week we hope to develop some play action passes we will be using against Stanislaus," he added.

One point loss to Jackets ends Tiger winning streak

BY DENA BISNETTE

The St. Martin Yellow Jackets broke a Bay St. Louis High School four-game winning streak Friday with a one-point victory over the Tigers.

Tiger Head Coach Cleveland Williams' hopes of a 7-3 season record for his team were lost on the result of a single St. Martin play, a two-point conversion that gave St. Martin an 8-7 homecoming victory.

The loss gives the Tigers a 4-4 season record but does not affect conference play because St. Martin is not a conference opponent.

In Friday's game, scoring for both teams was limited to the first half of the game.

The Tigers opened the scoring with 1:32 to go in the first quarter when they used a pass play that had proven successful in previous games. Jeffery Smith threw a short pass to Matt Fairconnetue for a touchdown and a gain of five yards.

Stace McRaney followed up with a kick for the extra point.

The score stood at 7-0 with the Tigers leading until the second quarter, when St. Martin scored a touchdown on a 10-yard run and followed up with a two-point conversion.

The remainder of the game included numerous turnovers, but defensive action and errors kept both teams from scoring.

Bay High took the ball within a foot of the goal line, just before halftime but lost it on downs as a hard-hitting St. Martin defense held the line.

In second half action, Eddie Nelson recovered a St. Martin fumble on a punt return to give the Tigers the ball, but Bay High was again unable to score.

Tiger fans again saw hope when Smith intercepted a St. Martin pass at about the 50 yard line and returned it 35 yards, but the Tigers were again unable to score.

Bay High's Rodney Whavers was also credited with an interception, when he grabbed a St. Martin pass and returned it for about 20 yards early in the fourth quarter.

Bay High, however, lost the final chance for a touchdown with about five minutes left in the game when St. Martin recovered a Tiger fumble on the St. Martin five yard line.

After two weeks on the road, the Tigers return home next week to face cross-county rival Hancock North Central.

Raiders close 4-2 season, accept post season game

Coast Episcopal Red Raiders closed their first season in the Tri-State Conference eight-man football league in second place despite a Friday night loss the Open Door Academy of Foley, Ala.

Friday's loss was a heartbreaker for the Raiders of Pass Christian who were leading 20-0 in the third period.

Open Door Eagle quarterback Kelvin Woodyar broke loose at mid-field in the closing seconds of the game to score, giving his team their 24-20 win.

The Raiders, with a 4-2 season record, drew a post-season invitation to meet Grace Academy of Ocean Springs Nov. 3 in the second annual Independence Bowl.

The Saturday night event, sponsored by the Ocean Springs Kiwanis club, is scheduled to get underway with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff at Greyhound Stadium there.

Admission is $2 for advanced sale tickets available at the respective schools or $3 at the gate.

In Friday's action at Griffin Park in Foley, Coast scored twice in the opening minutes of play, first on a burst up the middle by fullback Michael Hart and again when tackle Victor Marchese recovered an Open Door fumble in the Eagle end zone. Extra points gave the Raiders a 14-0 lead at the half.

Raider Greg Thurmond opened the third period with a 20-yard scoring run, giving Coast a 20-0 edge.

The Eagles began their late scoring blitz near the close of the third quarter when Chuck Spriggs completed a touchdown pass followed by a two-point conversion.

The second Eagle touchdown came late in the fourth period when a Raider punt was blocked and recovered by the defense in the Raider endzone.

A second two-point conversion by the Eagles brought them into threatening position, trailing by a slim four points.

Woodyar's long scoring dash put the Eagles ahead by two, followed by a third two-point conversion to complete the activity at 24-20.

Raider coach Kearney Bobinger said following the encounter he is proud of the effort made by the Raiders in their first year of competitive football with the 4 win-two loss record and a bowl invitation.

DEFENSE CLOSES IN—Coast Episcopal Raider end Joel Salsbury (10) moves in on an Open Door Academy ball carrier Friday in Foley, Ala. where the Raiders fell victims to a last-second touchdown by the Eagles giving them a 24-20 win over the visitors from Pass Christian. (CEHS photo)

Corkern pleads guilty, sentenced to 4 years

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Robert Corkern pleaded guilty Friday to the charges of conspiracy to commit armed robbery and accessory after the fact to murder before Judge James Thomas in the Harrison County Courthouse in Gulfport.

Corkern, a 22-year-old Shoreline Park resident, received a 10 year sentence with six years suspended for conspiracy to commit armed robbery and a five year suspended for accessory to murder after the fact.

These sentences will run concurrently. Consequently Corkern will serve a total of four years. Upon his release from prison, Corkern will face a probationary period of three years.

The charges against Corkern had been reduced from armed robbery and murder.

Originally Corkern and co-defendant Allen Nicolaou were charged with murder in the shooting death of Waveland resident Gerald Comiskey and Keith McMillian of New Orleans and armed robbery of the Old Rooster Cafe in Kiln.

A mistrial was declared by Thomas in Corkern's July trial for capital murder after the jury became deadlocked and was unable to render a verdict.

Nicolaou pleaded guilty Monday to two counts of murder, two counts of kidnapping and to armed robbery. He was sentenced to 30 years for each count of kidnapping, 40 years for armed robbery and two mandatory life sentences.

TRITON CHAMBER OF HORRORS—The Krewe of Triton will hold its annual chamber of horrors Sunday at the krewe den on Coleman Avenue in Waveland from 7 p.m. until. On Halloween night Wednesday the chambers will open at 6 p.m. This year there will be ten horrible monsters, featuring Frankenstein, Wolf Man and Dracula, as well as mummies and witches. Refreshments will be available. Admission price is $1. (Photo by Bob Hubbard)

Slight rise continues in unemployment

By DENA BISNETTE

The unemployment rate in Hancock County has continued a slight upward trend.

Statistics supplied by the Mississippi Employment Security Commission showed that last month's unemployment rate was 9.7 percent, one tenth of a percentage point higher than the August rate of 9.6 percent.

The county unemployment rate has been increasing by a tenth of a percentage point each month since June. The June rate was 9.4 percent, a 1.4 percent jump from the 1984 low of 8 percent recorded in May.

Unemployment reached 9.5 percent in July and 9.6 percent in August.

According to Ann Ladner of the Bay St. Louis MESC office, the increase is seasonal and can be expected to continue until extra hiring begins for the Christmas season.

"Things got slow again last month, but there are not usually many jobs available this time of year," she said.

"Our placement rate dropped to about 47 in September and we expect it to drop to about 45 this month. That's way down from August, when we placed more than 90 people in jobs," she added.

In September, there were 960 people seeking jobs in Hancock County, including 20 more than the previous month.

However, the number of employed

Hancock Countians increased to 8,980 in September, representing an increase of 110 over August.

The increases were offset by an increase in the county's civilian work force, which included 9,810 people in August but increased to 9,940 in September.

Ladner said that increase in the work force was an additional cause of last month's increased unemployment percentage.

She said some of the increase is seasonal and she expects it to go back down during November. However, much of the increase in the number of people working or looking for jobs in Hancock County is due to population growth.

"We have a lot of new residents coming in to our office. Some of them tell us they've moved to this area because they hear jobs are available and some of them just come here hoping they can find one," she explained.

With 9.7 percent unemployment, Hancock County remained one percentage point below the state rate of 10.7 percent in September and in the middle in county rates.

The high for county rates was 22.4 percent in George County. The low was 4.9 percent in Rankin County.

Hancock was one of 22 counties having increased unemployment rates in September. Unemployment remained unchanged in four counties and decreased in 56 counties last month.

areas within the "Mississippi Sound east of the Gulfport Ship Channel and south of a line running along the shoreline to a point due north of the westernmost tip of Deer Island then due south to the tip of Deer Island then to Grand Bayou and to Beacon No. 22 in Biloxi Bay Channel.

Continuing northeasterly to the tip of Marsh Point and easterly following the meanderings of the shoreline to the L & N Railroad Bridge in the West Pascagoula River then easterly, following the railroad bridge to the east shore of the East Pascagoula River and along the shoreline to the state line.

The commission remind shrimpers that all rules and regulations will be in "full force and effect" and "all boats and vessels engaged in catching or transporting shrimp in the waters of the state must be duly licensed."

POLITICAL FORUM AT DIAMONDHEAD—Among speakers appearing at the Diamondhead Community Association's Political Forum on Friday were from left, Larkin Smith, speaking on behalf of Thad Cochran; and Mrs. William Winter, speaking on behalf of her husband. Cochran is the Republican nominee and Winter the Democrat nominee. Others speaking were Arlon (Blackie) Coate (Democrat), David Treutel Jr. on behalf of Trent Lott, Republican for the office of U.S. Congressman. Election Commissioner candidates for District Three appearing were John V. Ladner (Republican), and Betsy Nolan (Independent). District Five School Board contenders were Larry Koenen, Marlon Nell (Breland) Koenen, and Lennette M. Neale. State Senator Gene Taylor told the group why he is opposed to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 548 which is referred to as the conflict of interests bill. Hancock County Sheriff Ronald Peterson told of the urgent need of a new Hancock County Jail.

Matters of Health

HALLOWEEN

Halloween or All Hallows' Eve is one of the year's most exciting holidays for children.

It's the day for tots and toddlers of all ages to dress in scary costumes and prow through residential sections yelling "trick or treat" with hopes of candy and other rewards.

Though in the past few years, Halloween has become a more carefully regulated holiday, certain dangers still exist. However, with the consideration and effort of the adult population, most of these dangers could be eliminated.

The following suggestions are not meant to take the fun out of Halloween but to make it a safer, more enjoyable holiday.

Children, particularly when excited do not always take time to consider the dangers of their actions. It becomes the parents' responsibility to practice preventive safety measures.

Cloth masks or head-dresses which cover the entire head can slip and block a child's vision or breathing. An alternative can be using lipstick or make-up to paint a scary face.

Certain costumes also can be dangerous. Loose fitting costumes can get caught on fences, bushes and other objects. Children may trip on costumes that are too long.

Dark clothes are difficult to see at night, posing particular problems for motorists. If you do choose a dark costume, use reflective tape or liquid paint that reflects light.

Tape or paint of this nature also can be used on hats, bags, jack-o-lanterns or other things, which the youngster wears or carries.

Children should not be allowed to play with matches, candles, torches, or other flammable products, unless under direct supervision of an adult. They should not be allowed to carry sharp objects like spears and knives.

In recent years, parents have become increasingly alarmed over individuals who would give their children fruit and candy with embedded needles, razor blades or drugs. Parents could help eliminate this danger by letting their children visit only houses of friends and neighbors. Parents also should check the candy that children bring home before allowing them to eat it.

Motorists also play an important role in Halloween safety. If you're out that evening in your car, slow down and drive with extra caution. Drive as if you expect a child to dart from behind a bush or parked car. It's up to you to watch out for them.

Readers may suggest topics by writing to "Matters of Health," the University of Mississippi Medical Center, 2500 North State Street, Jackson, Miss. 39216-4505.

gram, one of two attended by a total of more than 90 children, was one of several annual holiday projects provided through the library's children's services division. (Staff photo by Dena Bisnette)

Hawk, Tiger 9th Graders to meet Thursday at HNC

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The county championship will be on the line for ninth grade football when Hancock North Central's Hawks play host to Bay High Tigers.

Both teams are 4-1 and will also be battling for sole ownership of second in the Deep South Conference for ninth grade football.

Conference leader is Stone County Tomcats with a record of 6-0 in conference.

The Tomcats edged both the Hawks and Tigers by a six point margin in the only conference loss by each team this season. Stone defeated HNC 18-12 and Bay High 14-8.

Joe Shaw's Hawks are 5-3 overall for the season winning Thursday night 21-0 over Pearl River Central. The young Hawks took a 7-0 lead on a Jeff Moran pass to Byron Peterson combination for a 45 yard scoring play. Vincent Cuevas kicked the PAT.

Later in the second quarter, Donald Vince picked off a Pearl River pass and returned it for a 65 yard score. A two point conversion try was no good giving the Hawks a 14-0 lead.

The second quarter was marked by good defensive play by each team.

Vince added his second score of the game by rambling in on a 10 yard run in the third quarter. Cuevas was accurate on the PAT making the score 21-0.

Joe Shaw, head coach of the Hawk ninth graders had high praises for his entire team's performance.

Shaw said, "Pearl River never crossed our 35 yard line to give you an idea of how good our defense played."

Shaw is assisted by Terry Payne and Ray Billeaud.

ETV Briefs

MEDIA BLACKS

"Blacks in Media Management and Community Relations" will be covered in a two-part "Faces" panel discussion at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 1 and Nov. 8 on Mississippi ETV. "Faces" is rebroadcast at 5:30 p.m., Sundays.

Guests on the two programs will be Charles Tidale, Jackson Advocate; Earl Anderson, WOAD-AM, Jackson; and Omega Wilson, WMPR-FM, Jackson.

Also during each "Faces" program, John Horton and Rosa Crider debate the pros and cons of current issues. On Nov. 1 the topic is open prayer in public schools, and on Nov. 8 it's job seniority vs. affirmative action regarding layoffs.

DOCTOR WHO

"The Five Doctors" last year's 20th anniversary Doctor Who special, will be rebroadcast at 5:45 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 3 on Mississippi ETV.

The 90-minute special will begin immediately following the regular Saturday afternoon "Doctor Who" movie with Peter Davison, which begins at 5. The movie for Nov. 3 is "The King's Demons."

In "The Five Doctors," all five actors who have portrayed the traveling Time Lord, known simply as "the Doctor," in the BBC's science fiction series are represented in the program.

"Doctor Who" is the longest running science fiction series in the world and is currently seen weekly by 10 million viewers—children and adults—in 16 countries. A Night of the Doctor Who starring Tom Baker can be seen on Mississippi ETV at 10:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN MICHAEL GLANCEY

Glancey—Koch

Kristen Ann Koch became the bride of Kevin Michael Glancey in a morning ceremony October 6 in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with the Rev. Henry McInerney officiating.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Koch of Bay St. Louis and Potomac, Md. The groom is the son of Mrs. Mary Poole Glancey of Long Beach.

Baskets of white gladioli, carnations, lavender and violet blossoms and palm greenery decorated the sanctuary.

Nuptial music was presented by Stacie Hille and Mitzi Plessala, vocalists, and Vic Franckiewicz, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a formal gown of white chiffon over tulle with Queen Anne neckline outlined with re-embroidered lace and decorated with iridescent and seed pearls. The bodice and long-sleeved sleeves were appliqued with lace and a satin ribbon sash encircled the waist over a full bouffant skirt which featured tiers of baby doll ruffles encircling the hemline and ethereal train. She wore a bridal hat appliqued with lace with side-swept brim secured with hand-rolled silk flowers and ribbon and pearl pips with illusion streamers.

She carried a cascade of pale lavender silk anemone orchids, white stephanotis and fern.

Melanie Cuevas of Bay St. Louis was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Gerri Koch of Davie, Fla., Laurie McLean of Houston, Tex. and Kathie Koch of Bay St. Louis, sisters of the bride; and Kelly Glancey of Long Beach, sister of the groom.

Ryan Magee of Long Beach was flower girl.

The attendants were identically attired in formal gowns of violet chiffon, each with cross-draped bodice with self-roses at the waist, sweetheart neckline, over-sized puffed sleeves and full, flared skirts.

They carried double orchid clutch-style bouquets with baby's breath, lace and satin streamers.

Paul Bishop of Long Beach was best man.

Groomsmen were Mark Koch of Bay St. Louis, brother of the bride; David Cerami of Bedford, Tex.; Kevin Killeen of New Orleans, cousin of the groom; and Tony Bilbry of Ocala, Fla.

Steve Poole of Metairie, La. was usher.

Joshua Magee of Long Beach, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Koch chose for her daughter's wedding a street-length pale lavender dress with Sabrina neckline, long puffed sleeves and gently flared skirt. The mother of the groom was attired in a light violet-hue suit with classic styling, enhanced with a purple silk blouse. They wore orchid corsages.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table, centered before an ivy decorated brass arch, held a tiered wedding cake topped with a porcelain bride and groom and decorated in an orchid theme. Assisting at the reception were Brooke and Marie Schultz, Mrs. Carrie Smith, Charlotte Garret, Mrs. Fred Bowles, Mrs. Lydia Schultz and Cedrick Wickerson, all of Bay

St. Louis and Joyce Belsom of Baton Rouge.

On return from a wedding trip to Orlando, Fla., the couple resides in Mayport, Fla.

Goguen—Snow

Christ Episcopal Church in Bay St. Louis was the setting for the October 13 marriage of Gladys Priscilla Snow of Diamondhead and Kenneth Albert Goguen of New Orleans. The Rev. Charles Johnson officiated at the afternoon double ring ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Snow of Diamondhead. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Paul Goguen of San Francisco, Calif.

Large arrangements of white gladioli, mums and carnations decorated the sanctuary.

Musical selections were performed by Mrs. Pat Hille, organist.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of silk organza over taffeta. The fitted bodice featured a Queen Anne neckline overlaid with beaded venise lace. The full bishop sleeves had cuffs of matching lace and the softly flowing skirt was edged with double rows of venise lace on satin and extended to a chapel length train. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a jeweled venise lace caplet.

She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, peach alstroemeria and baby's breath.

Mrs. Phillip Milholland of Dallas, Tex., sister of the bride, was honor attendant.

She was attired in a floor-length gown of royal blue silk taffeta with matching taffeta headband and netting. She carried a cascade of roses, stephanotis, peach alstroemeria and baby's breath.

Albert Paul Goguen served his son as best man.

Ushers were Phillip Milholland of Dallas, Tex. and Jay Donnelly of New Orleans.

Mrs. Snow chose for her daughter's wedding a floor-length gown of powder blue chiffon, while Mrs. Goguen wore a formal gown of royal blue chiffon.

A reception followed the ceremony in Virginia Hall. Decorations included tables draped with light blue netting caught with white satin bows and white wedding balls.

Following a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will reside in New Orleans.

Clubs, Auxiliaries

Bay-Waveland Garden Club

A tour of the NSTL/NASA facility was enjoyed by the members of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club for their October meeting.

Wayne Ducomb, public affairs official for NASA, gave the group a guided tour of the newly renovated Visitors Center, which was followed by a bus trip of the entire area.

The group then watched a film in the auditorium which depicted the history of the space facility.

Mrs. Lelyn Nybo was hostess for the picnic that followed, assisted by Mrs. Dale Gauthier, Nicholas Haas, Raymond Russell, Frances McDonald, Norman Coward, W.B. Follansbee, Edward Brennan and John Eble.

At a brief business meeting an amendment to the club's constitution was voted on.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Clarence A. Evans, read the rules governing the correct procedure for presenting a prospective member for membership.

The horticultural portion of the program featured Spanish Moss and was researched by Mrs. Jan Brameyer.

The Bay St. Louis Garden of the Month plaque was given to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finnan on 803 Beyer Avenue. The Waveland Garden of the Month plaque was given to the T.J. Dittmar home on Pine Ridge Road. The Commercial Beautification plaque was given to the office of attorney Ann Clark Lazzara on Court Street.

Mrs. John Newkirk, club president, made the following announcements:

—A White Elephant booth will be manned by club members during the Hancock County Fair Nov. 5-11.

—The Bay-Waveland Garden Club will be host club at their Garden Center for the Nov. 5 meeting of the Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs. Small begonia plants were given to each member, which they are to grow and enter in a special class in the club's Spring Flower Show.

Diamondhead Garden Club

The Diamondhead Garden Club held its monthly meeting Oct. 17 in the Mississippi Room at the Fairway Villa.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hickman was selected for the Garden of the Month plaque.

Beautification and litter chairman, Mrs. George Kollasch, said she was working on a program to make the contractors more aware of the litter problem.

Mrs. William Temple, ecology chairman, told of a book defining birds and their personalities and comparing them with people.

Mrs. Hoyt Johnson, energy conservation chairman, distributed material on water frugality.

Mrs. Carl Stuart gave an interesting talk on the magnolia tree.

Roadside chairman, Mrs. Wayne Wadlington, said the wildflower beds will be mowed as soon as the seeds have fallen and are scattered.

The 1985 calendars have been received by Mrs. L. R. Wallace, ways and means chairman.

Mrs. William Neff encouraged members to provide feeding stations for the birds.

President Mrs. R. B. Boatright announced that the scrapbook, so attractively prepared by Mrs. James Feirich and Ms. Dorothy Rickson, won a third-place award at the Spanish Trail District meeting.

Other awards were certificate of achievement for being on the State Honor Roll; certificate of appreciation for donation to Avenue of Magnolias; certificate of appreciation from CARE; certificate of appreciation for outstanding participation in Operation Wildflowers.

A certificate of merit was received by the committees on civic improvement, roadside, Operation Wildflowers, Arbor Day, litter control, environmental awareness, conservation, publicity, Memorial Garden, community service and federated programs.

The five newcomers who were welcomed to the club are Mrs. Donald Lathrop, Mrs. Lou Cotton, Mrs. William Eckert, Mrs. Joseph Lopez and Mrs. Gregg Perry. Attending as a guest was Mrs. Keats Ashley.

The program, presented by Mrs. Terry Bates, assistant to Highway Commissioner Bob Joiner, publicized highway beautification and litter control.

American Legion Auxiliary

The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary held a Regional Leadership Workshop this past weekend in Mobile, Ala. at the Riverview Plaza. Three members of Clement R. Bontemps Post and Unit 139 were among the 331 members in attendance including John Wilkerson, post adjutant; Agnes Wilkerson, unit president; and Lou Wilkerson, District Nine president. A total of 18 from Mississippi attended.

The workshop was divided into four basic categories: Americanism, Children and Youth, Veterans Administration and Rehabilitation, and Membership. Each member attending selected the division of interest to them and they stayed with that agenda all day.

The opening session on Friday and the closing session on Sunday were held jointly and covered general topics of interest. On Sunday morning before leaving to go home the group heard an address by the National Commander of the American Legion and on Friday night were addressed by the National Vice-President of the Auxiliary.

During the Americanism portion of the workshop, the instructors touched on subjects such as American Education Week, "Need A Lift," scholarships, Freedom Foundation, and American Legion School Awards.

Girls State, Boys State, and the Oratorical Contest are also part of the Americanism program. One very interesting part was the "Adopt a School Program" under this program the post or unit picks a school with a particular project or problem and puts forth a concerted effort to support the school and to help with the project or problem giving both time and money. In the afternoon those attending learned of other programs such as "Flag Etiquette," "Get Out the Vote '84," "Service to God and Country," oratorical contest, "County Government Days," and other youth activities.

The children and youth agenda covered the projects and objectives of that committee. The program this year includes "Teen-age Suicide," "Missing Children," "Child Welfare Foundation," "Children's Heart Fund," and "Drug Abuse," just to mention a few. Films were shown and discussions were held on each of these points. The American Legion and Auxiliary work for all the children of the world not just our veterans' children.

In the membership portion of the meetings, those who attended learned to promote their organization. Problems were shared and in turn solutions were shared also. Ideas were presented on how to use the tools of recruiting and renewal.

Leadership qualities were discussed and a film was presented entitled, "Speaking to 1 or 1000." Jeanette Ghetti of Mississippi was the instructor for the membership portion and her theme was "No Problems Just Challenges."

The Veterans Administration and Rehabilitation meeting was opened on Saturday morning with a presentation by Jackie Smith and Elmer Dickens of the Gulfport and Biloxi VA Hospitals.

A veterans' benefits workshop was held after lunch. The VAAW program has three elements of service provided by the national staff of the American Legion to department and post service officers. The first is developing and presenting claims and dealing with other problems related to veterans benefits. The second element is the continuing effort to protect and improve veterans benefits. The third is oversight of the Veterans Administration. The American Legion is the best insurance American Veterans have that the government and the people of America will not forget them in time of peace as well as in time of war.

When the session ended on Sunday everyone returned home with a new and greater enthusiasm for the work done by the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary. There were a total of 331 in attendance, 168 auxiliary members and 163 legion members, of this amount 18 were from Mississippi.

Blue Jeans Garden Club

The Blue Jeans Garden Club met Oct. 18 at the home of Mrs. Joseph Roppolo in Waveland with Mrs. A.M. Thomas, president, presiding.

The business meeting was opened with a prayer for peace in the world by Mrs. Talmadge Conway.

Past presidents of the Blue Jeans appointed to serve on the nominating committee for election of officers in November were Mrs. Roppolo, Mrs. Maurice Shea and Mrs. J.C. Goodloe.

Mrs. Wanda Berthelot, new member of the Blue Jeans, was introduced by the president and given a cordial welcome by the group.

Mrs. Robert Taconi won the floor prize. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Roppolo for the Fall Social, following the short business meeting, were Mesdames Conway, Evelyne Coogan, Christian Neubig and Thomas.

Next meeting of the group will be Nov. 15.

Zeta Tau Alpha

The Gulf Coast Alumnae Club of Zeta Tau Alpha fraternity will host a wine and cheese party on Thursday, Nov. 1 at 7 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Richard E. Brown Jr.

Plans for the coming year will be discussed and reports on collegiate chapters within the state will be given. Details of the new chapter house under construction on the Mississippi State University campus will also be revealed.

Any alumna of Zeta Tau Alpha is urged to attend. For more information call Mrs. Richard Brown Jr. or Mrs. Patrick Ryan, both of Gulfport.

Women's groups have provided strong support to Methodist Church throughout its history

Article X
Bicentennial of American Methodism
By Katrina O. McDonald
Article IX)

One of the strong parts of Main Street Church has always been the women's work. When the writer first came to Bay St. Louis to live around 1920, a group including Mrs. W.L. Bourgeois, Mrs. E. Steele Drake, Mrs. A.L. Stokoe, Mrs. W.A. McDonald, Mrs. John Osinich, Mrs. Paul Delcuze, Mrs. James A. Evans and many others provided strong support for the minister and the official board, and were responsible for the furnishings and maintenance of the parsonage until recent years.

First known as Woman's Missionary Society (1912-1940), their group moved through changes in structure and title (as did the church) and became Woman's Society of Christian Service in 1940 and United Methodist Women in 1968.

On the conference level, a number of women from Bay St. Louis served over the years. Mrs. W.W. James probably serving the longest.

At Main Street it became evident in the late 1940's after World War II that there were a number of young women who would enjoy the fellowship of an evening circle.

Mrs. Abby Bourgeois Rogers served as the first chairman, and Mrs. Alice Evans Pitcairn succeeded her.

In 1957 this circle divided to accommodate the young matrons with children in school, and a morning circle was formed with Mrs. Margaret Shattuck as its first chairman.

These active, hard working young women were responsible in 1954 for providing for the church a beautiful new pulpit, altar and lectern. Other items were added by individual donors.

In 1959 a long-time wish was realized when a Book of Remembrance was dedicated and presented to the church in memory of George Shadoin to provide a permanent record of memorial and honor gifts and to mark special occasions.

The funds which have been given over the years were used to make substantial additions to the sanctuary, the church property and the worship service.

One of the first purchases were choir pews from memorials given in the name of Dr. J. A. Evans who had served so faithfully in many capacities and had been a choir member for 26 years.

In more recent years, gifts provided equipment for the hand bell and tone bell choirs, a ramp for wheel chairs and the handicapped, a wrought iron fence on the east to enclose the property in memory of Mr. Sam Whitfield, a substantial gift toward the new organ and other furnishings.

From the beginning, the records have been kept by Mrs. Virginia Baxter Larroux.

Both the repository which holds the Book of Remembrance, and the wall case which houses the original Communion Service were made by the late Wallace Chevis.

Recently, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Finley made a most generous gift of chimes for the church which are enjoyed not only on Sundays but through the week by the entire neighborhood.

Along with other services to the church by the women, the provision of flowers for the weekly worship services were carried out by Mrs. J.A. Evans who often used flowers from her own yard.

Her daughter, Mrs. Alice Pitcairn, succeeded her and is in charge of this ministry when flowers are often given in memory of loved ones or to honor someone.

Any review of this church in the mid-20th Century would be incomplete without a tribute to Mrs. J.B. Goldman and Mrs. Carl T. Smith who for several decades were largely responsible for the music of the church, and to Mrs. C.M. Shipp, the beloved teacher in the primary department.

In 1980, with Rev. Willis Britt as minister, another ministry was added. Growing out of a community need and the concerns of a group within the church, the Social Concerns Committee explored the possibility of a day care center.

After a survey and contacting the health department and licensing agency, a list of requirements were presented to the administration board.

They decided to proceed and the children's center opened on Sept. 1 with 12 children, three employees and a cook.

The center grew rapidly and the present enrollment is 126 children from three months to 12 years.

There are two kindergarten classes, a summer camp program and an after school program for elementary school children.

The center now employs a director, an assistant director, a certified kindergarten teacher, a certified pre-school teacher and a cook and ten day care workers.

They feel a real community need is being met in this weekday ministry. Wendy Rupp is director.

The membership of both Sunday school and church fluctuated over the years as three wars, varying economic conditions and a devastating hurricane affected the area.

In more recent years the population of Hancock County has increased, due largely to the coming of NASA, the Oceanographic program, other federal installations, many retired people and new industries at the port.

The church is fortunate and most grateful to have dedicated Christian leadership from some of these new families who have moved into the area.

The church also appreciated the generations of local families who have made Main Street United Methodist Church their church home, and will always be indebted to the many loyal members who have given countless hours of devoted service.

Children baptized, confirmed and reared in church school and married here, now see their children and grandchildren following in the tradition established to the glory of God by the founding fathers.

NOTE: The writer is indebted in Articles IX and X to Harry Shattuck, "A Brief History of the Main Street Methodist Church," Mrs. Alice Evans Pitcairn for numerous articles on church history, and Mrs. Lucy McDonald for her article given at a worship service.

SECOND BIRTHDAY—Casey Michael Favre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Favre of Bay St. Louis, celebrated his second birthday with a baseball theme party and bar-b-que Oct. 20 with friends and relatives in the home of his parents. Casey is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stiglet and Mrs. Ethel Favre, all of Bay St. Louis.

NELL BRELAND KOENNEN

CANDIDATE

HANCOCK COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD - DISTRICT 5

It will be my pleasure and privilege to serve as your representative.

I, Nell Koenenn, am qualified to effectively and honestly serve in this vital position. "Vital position" because the members of the school board directly effect the future of our children and grandchildren.

I am a lifelong resident of Hancock County and have been involved with the operations and problems of the county school system throughout my entire life.

Both my father and mother (Mr. & Mrs. Ed Breland) spent their lives teaching school in Hancock County, with my father being honored for serving as Superintendent of the Hancock County School System.

As Ed Breland's daughter, I was involved with assisting him, learning many of the workings of school board member.

I am the mother of three children, all of whom received 12 successful years of schooling in Hancock County.

As an interested and concerned mother, I took part in all school activities, giving me considerable exposure to the system.

In this day of progress and growth of Hancock County, one can foresee many problems in charges of the future in our educational system.

I am qualified and prepared to face not only these new problems, but also to correct mistakes in the system of the past.

This is a countywide election, and I sincerely solicit the help and support of all qualified voters.

I promise you a full term of devoted, unselfish service for the betterment of the children and the school system of Hancock County.

PLEASE VOTE FOR ME, NELL KOENNEN, ON NOVEMBER 6TH.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH

Many of us are familiar with the legend of the great chowder war—New England versus Manhattan. The traditional New England Chowder is a creamy, creamy soup of clams, while the New York City chowder contains that controversial ingredient—tomato.

But once the basics of rendered salt pork, onion, potato and a rich, rich broth of milk or cream are underway, the cook can add whatever suits the fancy these days it seems. And it varies the routine.

The fact is, the "chowder" was originated by early French settlers who prepared a dish of fish and potatoes known in France as "chaudieres," from the name of the kettle or pot in which it was cooked.

There, the fishermen's wives cooked up a creamy soup with whatever was in the day's catch. Of whatever origin, chowders have a well-founded place in the culinary history of America, whether they are made of fish, other seafood, potatoes, corn, lima beans or whatever's on hand—and there are few things better on a chilly, rainy day!

As our early colonists moved inland, their recipes for chowder changed to fit the geography and season, using vegetables, chicken and so forth.

Here's the traditional New England

CLAM CHOWDER

1 dozen, large chowder clams, or 3

cans (12½ oz. each) minced clams

½ lb. lean salt pork, diced

1 cup chopped onion

3 cups diced raw potatoes

2 cups light cream

2 cups milk

2 Tbsp. butter

White pepper, salt, paprika as desired

Assuming that you haven't any clams on hand except a can or so, strain and reserve the liquid. Measure the juice, and if it's less than four cups, add water. Fry the pork until golden, remove and reserve, draining off all but ¼ cup of fat.

Add the onions and saute for a few minutes, then add the potato, seasons and clam liquid, and simmer until the potatoes are tender.

Add the clams, along with the milk, cream and butter, and reheat but do not bring to a boil.

Top with the pork crisps and sprinkle with paprika if you wish. (Three quarts, approximately.)

For Manhattan Clam Chowder, add tomatoes, chopped to your taste.

Fresh or canned corn also makes a delicious chowder, as do boned bits of fish.

You may even use a couple of cans of the old standby tuna fish or salmon. And there's nothing wrong with a plain old potato chowder on a cold evening!

'ROADS' ITINERARY

The first stop of the evening on "Mississippi Roads" at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Nov. 6 on ETV is at the National Aerobics Center in Vicksburg.

Viewers hear about the benefits of aerobics ("the stimulation of heart and lung activity through exercise for a period long enough to produce beneficial body changes") from Sharon Hule, manager; instructors Brenda Irons, Carrie Cunningham and, Esther Dickerson, all of Vicksburg; and instructor Bridge Archer of Jackson.

From Vicksburg, "Roads" travels east to Jackson for a visit to the Mississippi Natural Science Museum. Featured in this segment are Libby Hartfield, educator coordinator; Will McDearman, associate curator of botany; Roger Weill, associate curator of Ichthyology-Herpetology; Kathy Shropshire, associate curator of mammalogy; Paul Hartfield, associate curator of invertebrates; and children from the First United Methodist Kindergarten in Clinton, who were visiting the museum while "Mississippi Roads" was taping.

Still traveling east, "Roads" heads for Meridian for a brief visit to Highland Park to see the carousel manufactured in the 1900s by premier carousel maker Gustav Dentzel.

It's down to Natchez next to the kitchen of Mrs. H.A. "Aunt Freddie" Bailey while she makes her acclaimed hot pepper jelly.

The crew travels back to Jackson for a recording session at Malaco Records. Lindsey Brooks, lead singer of "Freedom", is behind the mike, and Wolf Stevenson, vice-president of Malaco Records, presides at the console.

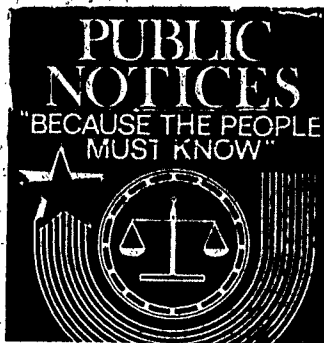

For the final outing of the program, viewers are treated to traveling storyteller and puppeteer Linda Skinner, formerly of Philadelphia, now of Tulsa. She uses her unique talents to teach Indian children about their Choctaw heritage.

"Mississippi Roads" will be rebroadcast at 5 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 11 on Mississippi ETV.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS

Sealed bids for roof replacement or roof refurbishment at the Lakeside Villa Condominium; Diamondhead, Bay St. Louis, Mississippi for the Lakeside Villa Condominium Association will be accepted at 2:00 p.m., November 3, 1984. Location of bid opening will be announced at a pre-bid conference of bidders on October 27, 1984 at 9:00 a.m. at the Lakeside Villa Condominium and confirmed in writing to all prospective bidders in an addendum.

The work being bid is as follows: There are two different schemes of work to be bid. One scheme proposed will be roof repair and refurbishment while the second proposal will be for roof replacement.

One or both schemes can be bid without penalty or disqualification. The repair and refurbishment scheme involves raising and supporting all existing parapet roofs so that no part of the parapet roofs comes in contact with a new 4-ply roof; repair and refurbishment of the parapet roofs; securing parapet roofs to the existing structure; installation of a four-ply membrane roof under the parapet roofs; and removal and re-installation of existing air conditioner compressors.

The replacement scheme involves demolition of the existing parapet roofs, and construction of new gabled roofs on the existing structure. On one-bedroom condominiums, air conditioning compressors are to be installed in recessed areas.

A 5% bid security is required. No performance bond is required so as to encourage bidding. Compensation will be based on a completed building by completed building basis. Plans and specifications are available by submitting a non-refundable deposit in the form of a check for $25.00 to Jules Lagarde, Architect, 122 Court Street, Bay St. Louis, Miss. 39520.
